

OFFICE OF STRATEGIC SERVICES
WASHINGTON, D. C.

29 April 1944.

Mr. S. F. Campiche,
2800 Woodley Road, N. W.,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Campiche:

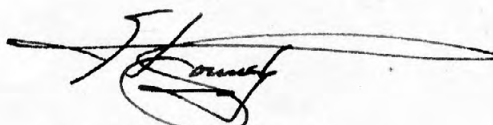

I want to apologize to you for having sent you a letter under date of April 27, 1944, expressing the thought that perhaps there might be some activity in this agency in which you might be interested.

From time to time, the various branches supply us with names of people considered qualified for a particular activity. It is our job to make a preliminary investigation in order to report back to the branch the desirability and availability of the names supplied.

Undoubtedly someone whom you know mentioned your name to a branch head, who, in turn, passed it on to us for further check-up.

I trust that we have not inconvenienced you. Please do not feel it necessary to reply to this letter.

Yours sincerely,

E. F. CONNELLY,
Colonel, F. A.

Dear Sir:

Your name has been presented to this Office as being possibly qualified for work in connection with our activity. If you are interested in being considered for such an assignment it is requested that you appear at Room 103 North Building for a personal interview at which time all details will be discussed. In the event that you are not interested it would be appreciated if you would so indicate by return mail.

The nature of this query is confidential and you are requested not to discuss it with anyone.

Yours truly,

E F Connelly

Chief, Personnel
Procurement Branch
Office of Strategic Services
Washington, D.C.

Dear Colonel Connely:

I wish to acknowledge receipt of your letter of April 27, 1944. I must assume from the contents of your communication that your office was not familiar with the fact that I am Attaché of the Legation of Switzerland, and that as a Neutral Diplomat I am not in a position to take your offer in consideration.

Believe me, Dear Colonel Connely,

Yours very truly,
