My Lord,

With reference to my despatch No. 298 of the 23rd May, respecting the present situation of the principality of Lichtenstein, I have the honour to report that the Prince of Lichtenstein has now taken up his residence in the principality, no doubt with the object of demonstrating his position as sovereign prince of what is an independent state. This is all the more necessary in view of the fact that in a reign of sixty-one years this is only the fourth time that he has visited his principality.

I have the honour to be, with the highest respect,

My Lord,

Your Lordship's most obedient,

humble servant,

(signed) ACTON.

The
Earl Curzon of Kedleston, K.G., etc. etc. etc.

Position of Liechtenstein.

Transmits Berne despatch No. 330 referring to Berne despatch No. 298, and reporting that Prince of Liechtenstein has taken up his residence in principality. Object is doubtless to demonstrate his position as sovereign prince of an independent state, which is all the more necessary as the present occasion is only his fourth visit in a reign of 61 years.
